AMEND Senate Bill No. 2392

House Bill No. 2273*

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 68-104-112(a)(4), is amended by adding the following language after the first sentence of such subdivision:

Provided, however, it is not unlawful for Class C common fireworks to continue to be sold by a person on a parcel of land, which contains a fireworks stand, if:

(1) the parcel of property upon which such fireworks are sold is either partially located in a county having a population in excess of two hundred thousand (200,000) or more according to the 1990 federal census or any subsequent federal census, or there is disagreement concerning whether such property is wholly contained within a county having a population in excess of two hundred thousand (200,000) or more according to the 1990 federal census or any subsequent federal census; and

(2) fireworks have been sold annually at such stand for a period of at least forty-five (45) years.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
